

Božidar Dingarac

Božidar Dingarac was born in Belgrade. He graduated at the University of Belgrade Faculty of Law.

He has various experiences in the field of law, which he acquired working for the District court in Belgrade, law firm and in the office of public judgment enforcer where his job included performing of various tasks: writing of legal documents, implementation of the laws on administrative procedure and disputes, representing clients in courts in civil, criminal and administrative procedures, implementation of the Law on Higher Education and Law on Free Access to Information of Public Importance.

He has passed Serbian Bar exam and practitioner's exam in Serbian Bar Association Chamber.

In the National Entity for Higher Education and Quality Assurance in Higher Education he is employed as a lawyer whose job among the other tasks, includes: preparation of general and individual legal acts, professional and administrative support to the Managing Board and Commission for Accreditation and Quality Assurance, public procurement and human resource management.