

Miroslav Đalović

Miroslav Đalović was born in Sisak (Croatia).

He finished elementary and secondary school in Petrinja (Croatia) and enrolled studies of the political sciences at the Faculty of Political Sciences of the University Zagreb (Croatia).

He completed studies for the ton realization and video director at the Interestrada, Zagreb (Croatia).

He worked in several companies form private sector specialised for management and organisation of business sector.

His driver license is issued in 1978. He has more than 5 years of international experience in long-distance driving without any traffic violations records.

He is employed at the National body for accreditation and quality assurance in higher education (NAT) from June 12th, 2019 and performs following tasks: driver, maintenance of the vehicle, mail registry, as well as other office work. He has basic knowledge of English.

He is married and father of three children.